"It's important for everyone to learn how to use these new devices, because everything is moving so quickly that you need to learn or be lost."

- Theresa Graham
Current student
President of Gloucester City Senior Citizens' Association

Contact Gloucester City Library:

📞 856-456-4181x107

🌐 www.gcpl.us/services

✉️ laborandliteracy@gcpl.us

Or ask your librarian at Butler Library for help registering online!

Gloucester City Library

LABOR & LITERACY LIBRARY
LIGHTING YOUR PATH TO SUCCESS

NJ State Library
An affiliate of Thomas Edison State University

INSTITUTE of Museum and Library SERVICES

Labor & Literacy Lab

Gloucester City Library

Reach your employment, education, and computer literacy goals!

Labor & Literacy Lab

- Free to you!
- Get help with your job applications
- Build your computer skills
- Learn to use your phone
- Individualized help
- We teach any skill level
- Contact us to schedule an appointment

IC3 Computer Bootcamp

- Earn an IC3 certificate (Internet Core Competency Certification), a widely recognized gauge of your computer knowledge
- Free to you!
- A Windows computer is required
- 9 hours a week for 14 weeks
- Register by calling the Gloucester City Library or at www.bit.ly/ic3registration

Lab Appointments
Available Tuesday-Friday - Start any time

Computer Bootcamp
May 1-August 5
Register by April 28, 2023

You can attend via Zoom from the Butler Library or your home.